

The White House is located at 1600 Pennsylvania Ave, NW. The nearest Metro stops are Federal Triangle, Metro Center, and McPherson Square.

Tours of the White House must be requested through my office up to six months in advance. Tours times are from 7:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. Tuesday through Thursday, 7:30 a.m. to 12 p.m. Fridays, and 7:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturdays (excluding federal holidays). For the most current White House tour information, please call the 24-hour line at 202-456-7041. Please note that White House tours may be subject to last minute cancellation.

To make a group tour request (at least 10 people) please contact Marwan Terry in my Washington office at (202) 225-3631 or marwan.terry@mail.house.gov. For security purposes, please be prepared to give the following information for each member in the group: full name, Social Security number, and date of birth.

On the day of your tour, please be advised that White House security is extremely tight. Prohibited items include, but are not limited to, the following: handbags, book bags, backpacks, purses, food and beverages of any kind, strollers, cameras, video recorders or any type of recording device, tobacco products, personal grooming items (make-up, hair brush or comb, lip or hand lotions, etc.), any pointed objects (pens, knitting needles, etc.), aerosol containers, guns, ammunition, fireworks, electric stun guns, mace, martial arts weapons/devices, or knives of any size. There are no storage facilities available on or around the White House complex. Individuals who arrive with prohibited items will not be permitted to enter.

A visit to the White House is significantly enhanced by a stop at the White House Visitor Center located at the southeast corner of 15th and E Streets. The Center is open seven days a week from 7:30 a.m. until 4 p.m. and features many aspects of the White House, including its architecture, furnishings, first families, social events, and relations with the press and world leaders. The White House Historical Association also sponsors a gift shop area.
